Home » News » Movies » Myra Vaikul Just Can't Wait To Welcome Lord Ganesha This ChaturthiLast Updated: August 01, 2022, 18:31 ISTThe latest pictures on her Instagram timeline are for Ganesh Chaturthi.Myra Vaikul doesn't need a special introduction to the world of television. The little one is known for her role in the hit Marathi serial Majhi Tujihi Reshimgaath. Well, not just that, Myra is also a social media sensation. Fans are hooked to her Instagram account, which is managed by her mother. And, now, the latest pictures on her Instagram timeline are for Ganesh Chaturthi. Wearing a nauvari saree, a nath (nose ring), and feta on the head (a traditional turban), Myra can be seen holding an idol of Lord Ganesha. Ganesh Mahotsav is right around the corner, and the country is gearing up to celebrate it with pomp. Her caption translates to, "Waiting for your arrival". Myra's Instagram timeline shows two consecutive posts in the 'Marathi Mulgi' attire along with Bappa is cuteness overload. She looks at Bappa with a big smile and can be seen hugging the idol affectionately. As soon as the photos were uploaded, fans thronged the comment section to pour their love for the little one and to show enthusiasm for the upcoming Ganesh festival. Comments like - 'So cute pari', 'Cute Bappa with Cute Myra', 'amazing little actress, love you Myra aka Pari' can be seen on the post. This is not the first time Myra has won the hearts of her fans on Instagram. Myra Vaikul often dresses up for occasions. Previously, she had posted a Reel as a tribute to Bal Gangadhar Tilak by sporting a moustache and dressing up as Lokmanya Tilak on his birth anniversary. Myra also has her own YouTube channel which is handled by her mother, Shweta Vaikul, where videos from her daily life along with her family are posted. Reportedly, it was her viral videos on the internet that got her into the TV industry. On the work front, Myra plays Pari in Majhi Tujihi Reshimgaath, opposite Shreyas Talpade and Prarthana Behere, which airs on Zee Marathi. Since her first appearance on the show, the audience loves her for her innocence, performance, and dialogue delivery. The show has garnered her huge following on social media platforms, which is a commendable feat for a 5-year-old. Read all the Latest News and Breaking News here Chennai, July 30: T.J. Gnanavel's critically acclaimed courtroom drama 'Jai Bhim', starring Suriya, Lijomol Jose and Manikandan in the lead, will be among the Tamil films that will be screened at the Indian Film Festival of Melbourne that is to take place between August 12 - 30, this year. The film narrates the story of a brave activist-lawyer, who fights for justice when a poor tribal man, who gets falsely accused of robbery, goes missing from police custody. Some of the other thought-provoking Tamil films in this year's festival include the docu-fiction movie 'The Road to Kuthirai' and 'Perianayagi'. 'The Road to Kuthirai', directed by Bharat Mirle, stars Dhruv Athreya, Chinna Dorai, Parvathi On, M.K. Raghavendra, Mariammal and Saravana Dhruv. The story of the film follows a wildlife researcher from the city, who is faced with the task of conducting a 'mammal survey' of the 600-square-kilometre Kodaikanal Wildlife Sanctuary in Tamil Nadu. Armed with 40-year-old maps of the area and a GPS device, he navigates the park on foot. He recruits a local tribesman from the area to serve as his guide. When an accident takes him to the guide's village, the wool of 'civilisation' is lifted from the researcher's eyes and his attitude towards the marginalised is transformed. 'Perianayagi' by Bala Murali Shingade, stars Jeyagowri Sivakumaran. The story talks about an immigrant from Sri Lanka — 56-year-old Perianayagi — whose day begins as it does every day — at her dead-end job stacking shelves at the local supermarket. As a result of her inability to speak English, she struggles to fit in and build meaningful relationships. Today, on her wedding anniversary, Perianayagi is forced to reconcile with the bittersweet realities of her life. Her father, Pawan Gandhi, is a businessman and her mother, Jyothi Gandhi, is a housewife. She studied at Sophia Convent and Dewan Public School in Meerut, Uttar Pradesh. She has two younger sisters - Radhika Gandhi, who is also an actress in Kannada films, and Suhani Gandhi, a tennis player.[24][25] Gandhi started her career as a model by acting in advertisements and television series with Awaz (a remake of Lost in Hindi language) and a serial Zameen Se Aassman Tak, directed by Aruna Irani.[2] Gandhi got engaged in November 2012 with industrialist Anand Gowda but ended the relationship the following month.[26][27] Career Debut (2001) Gandhi during shooting of Tamil film Kokki in 2006 Gandhi started her career by acting in TV soaps, starting with Zameen Se Aassman Tak directed by Aruna Irani.[24] She made her acting debut at the age of 18 in the Hindi film Khatron Ke Khiladi released in 2001. Later appeared in Bengali film Tomake Salain in 2003, she moved to the South Indian film industry with the Tamil film Kokki (2006). The film earned moderate reviews and had a successful run at the box office.[25] Initial success and fame in Kannada (2006–08) Gandhi during shooting of Munguru Male film in 2006 Gandhi debut in the Kannada film industry was with Munguru Male.[citation needed] The film was the first in India for any language to be screened for continuously one year in a multiplex.[28] and ultimately ran over 865-days[29] in Karnataka.[30][31] And it was collected over ₹75 crore in its lifetime theatrical run at Indian box office. It went to become highest grossing South Indian film during its time of release.[32] Gandhi has received applause for her character in the film as Nandini. Indicine.com's critic states that "Sanjana makes a confident debut".[33] She then acted in the movie Milana with Puneeth Rajkumar, upon theatrical release on 14 September 2007, the film saw commercial success and completed a 500-day run in theatres. Later the film was dubbed into Malayalam as Ishtam Ennikishtam.[34] In the same year Gandhi acted in Krishna film with her Munguru male co-star Ganesh, it was the financial hit at the box office by completing 100-days. It marked as the second consecutive hit of the Ganesh and Gandhi pair after Munguru Male.[citation needed] The Krishna marked her hat-trick 100-days film in her career in Kannada film industry.[citation needed] In 2008, she starred in the financially successful[35] Kannada language film Taj Mahal with Ajay Rao, which ran over 200 days in couple of centers of Karnataka.[35] She was nominated for a Filmfare Best Actress Award, while Sify's critic wrote that "Pooja Gandhi looks pretty and has done a good job.[36] reddit.com editor Vijaysarathy claims that "Pooja Gandhi looks stunning and has worked hard to give a strong performance".[37] Her next movie was Budhivanta alongside Upendra. It became the highest grossing Kannada film of 2008 and completed 100-days in main centers of Karnataka.[38] Series of commercial failures (2009–2011) Gandhi went on to act in more than dozen of films in several languages including Kannada film industry, most of them went on to become commercially un-successful at the box office.[39] In 2010, Gandhi made her Telugu debut through the Mukkanti film opposite Nandamuri Taraka Ratna, along with Poorna. Which went on to become a financial failure at the box office.[40] In 2011, she acted her second film in Hindi with 1 Am, together with Juhi Chawla. '1 Am' received mainly positive reviews from critics and audience upon the theatrical release. The Times of India called it "an important and intelligent film"[41] and The Film Street Journal named it "a must watch".[42] In 2012 1 Am won the National Award for Best Hindi Film and Best Lyrics.[43] Critical acclaim and box office success (2012–18) Gandhi during inauguration of hotel spa in Bangalore in 2015 In 2012, Gandhi made a comeback through the female oriented film Dandupalya, which went on to become one of the highest-grossing films of Kannada industry[44] and completed 100 days theatrical run in both Karnataka and Andhra Pradesh.[45][46][47][48] And it collected over ₹40 crore[45][citation needed] against budget of ₹3 crore.[49][50] Gandhi received Filmfare Award for Best Kannada Actress and Suvarna Fimfare Award for Best Actress for her performance in Dandupalya.[44] The film was dubbed in Telugu and released as Dandupalyam. It was well received in Andhra Pradesh.[51][52][53][54] A Tamil dub titled Karimedu was produced by Rama Narayanan's Sri Thenandal Films and released on 24 May 2013 to critical acclaim. It was hit in Tamil Nadu.[55][56] The film was dubbed in Malayalam and was titled as Kuruthikkalam.[57] Critics heaped praise on Gandhi for her performance. Rediff.com claimed that she was "walks away with acting honours. She is a stunner with her vain looks sans makeup throughout the movie and she has lived her role exceptionally well".[58] while DNA's critic wrote that "viewers should not miss out on Pooja's performance.".[59] Business Standard's critic stated that "Pooja Gandhi as the leader of the gang is brilliant and extremely confident in her role. While some may typecast her performance as cheap and unwelcoming, I believe it takes guts for a regular heroine to shed her image and agree to play such a gritty part. She definitely deserves special mention for proving cliches wrong".[60] The Times of India's critic stated that "Pooja Gandhi walks away with full honours.[61] In 2013, Gandhi made her debut in Malayalam film with Maad Dad (2013) together with Lal and Meghana Raj.[62] Then she becomes Item number for the Mata fame Guruprasad's directed Kannada film Director's Special (2013).
